Riders who are eligible to compete as Junior or Young Rider at the start of the Carnival will be allowed to carryover and compete on the final day of the Carnival 1st January 2017

As many of you will be aware, Equestrian Australia (EA) announced earlier this year, that they will be adopting and enforcing new helmet standards as of 1 January 2017

The Mount Gambier Showjumping Club had decided to enforce this new standard for the entirety of our event. This is to avoid any confusion as our event runs in to 2017. The new standard of CE EN1384 VG1 (the 'VG1' is the important bit!), or any of the other acceptable standards, including AS/NZS 3838 (current Australian Standard) or ASTM F1163 (current US Standard) will be enforced from the start of training rounds Thursday 29th December.

All riders must bring their helmets (and guardian if under 18 years old) to the office before riding to be approved and to collect rider packs.

NO DOGS ALLOWED

The Football Club has expressed concern about the lack of respect shown for the Football facilities and as a result dogs are no longer allowed. We have been advised Rangers will be patrolling the grounds.

Please help by placing all rubbish in bins provided and manure in designated areas.
