

Carl Hester to visit Australia in 2016

Saddleworld is proud to present “An Evening with Carl Hester” on Saturday 5th November, 2016 at the Werribee Park National Equestrian Centre in Victoria.

The new and innovative Melbourne equestrian events company, Dressage Masterclass Pty. Ltd., has put together this exciting inaugural showcase to educate and inspire Australian dressage enthusiasts.

The educational and entertainment content of the evening will be supported by an indoor trade village with a food and hospitality extravaganza, all presented in the same format as the most popular European indoor shows, classification events and other equestrian spectacles.

A Saddleworld spokesperson said, “We are very excited to be involved as the main event sponsor for this special evening with Carl Hester. Saddleworld is committed to the PDS Carl Hester Collection of specialist dressage saddles and this event will showcase Carl’s unique talent as a rider, horseman, trainer and innovator. We understand that Australian enthusiasts have a thirst for knowledge along with a penchant for improving their skills and the evening’s program will allow Carl to share his vast knowledge and commitment to “best practice” in sport of dressage”.

“Carl’s legendary success and special expertise has enabled him to bring out the talent of many very successful horses as well as nurturing the training of some of the world’s most acclaimed dressage riders.”

“The PDS Carl Hester Collection has been an exciting addition to the Saddleworld dressage saddle range and the unique design features, quality of materials and manufacturing excellence have given Australian enthusiasts great confidence in a specialist saddle collection which now enjoys a strong local and international following.”

“The official on-line launch for the Evening with Carl Hester was on Sunday 17th January, 2016 and reserved seating tickets will go on sale from mid-February, priced from $99 ... visit www.dressagemasterclass.com.au for more information and ticketing details!”

Saddleworld is very pleased to be part of this milestone event, which is set to be a highlight of the 2016 Australian dressage calendar.

Enthusiasts are assured that there will be lots of information to follow.
