Judi Kaponica is a NCAS EA Level 1 accredited coach with numerous successes in dressage & showing, which enables her to bring a wealth of knowledge & experience to her lessons. Having competed at Prix St. George level herself, and having had Royal Show winning horses, Judi is well equipped to teach horses and riders of various levels. Judi has had many pupils across Australia achieve Regional, State & National awards in various disciplines, and her dedication to her students and their progress is outstanding.

Amanda Ross needs no introduction to the Equestrian world, having represented Australia at the 2000 Olympics on her own Otto Schumaker. With a strong background in all disciplines, Amanda has an amazing understanding of both the mental and physical challenges faced with many horses and will be an asset to any rider. Having started many young horses in the show ring, her knowledge around the muscular skeletal system will help you understand what makes your horse tick, how to get the most out of them and the benefit of education.

Jodie Barnes had much success in the show ring as a junior rider, including Champion Junior rider & turnout wins at Royal Show level, winner of Good Hands at Melbourne Royal, winner of National & Grand National Rider Junior Rider. Jodie's most memorable win in the show ring was winning EA National Hunter hack in its first year on 'Centennial Park', with her Mum, Di Barnes winning the National Open Hack on 'Royalty'. Moving in to Dressage, Jodie worked for her coach Reiner Kramer for 5 years, where her knowledge continued to grow. Competing at FEI & CDI level Jodie now runs her own coaching business and trains riders from all disciplines.
