- EV Sport Discipline Chair or Nominated Representative
- EV Discipline Squad Coach or Assistant Coach

2.2.2.1 Selection Panel Appointment Procedure

Selection Panel appointments will be advertised to all eligible Equestrian Victoria members as per clause 2.2.4 and 2.2.5 of this policy. All applications must be received by the Equestrian Victoria office.

Applicants must complete a nomination for consideration as advertised by each Equestrian Victoria respective sport committee.

The respective Equestrian Victoria sport committee's or their chosen representatives will assess the applicants, determine whether they meet the required criteria and make any appointment on merit.

The panel should contain at least one accredited official member. Accredited applicants should, where appropriate, have preference over non-accredited applicants.

2.2.2.2 Casual Vacancies

In the event of a Selector standing down after appointment, the sport discipline committee will fill that vacancy from previous applications as appropriate. In the event there are no further applicants the Sport Discipline Chair or their representative shall fill said vacancy.

2.2.3 Selectors Role

- The Selection Panels function is to select the best Young Rider consistent with clause 2.1.2 of this policy and to perform the associated tasks confidentially, impartially, independently and autonomously without interference or influence from the sport discipline committees or any other source.
- Participate in in person interview(s) with the Finalists.
- Advise the appropriate sports committee on selection issues, including the formulation and revision of selection criteria, policies and procedures.
- Attend the Young Rider Finalist Squad and Awards Presentation Night.

2.2.4 Selector Qualification(s):

Selectors must be Equestrian Victoria members with the ability to meet the following criteria:

- Possess an ability to analyse equestrian competition performance data.
- Ability to work autonomously whilst being part of a team.
- Ability to maintain confidentiality.
- Ability to communicate effectively at all levels.
- Possess attention to detail.
- Willing to be accountable for their actions, and prepared to justify tough decisions.
- Prepared to make hard, yet fair, decisions and prepared to convey those decisions to the people affected.
- Must hold a current Working With Children Chec

2.2.5 Other Requirements:

- Must be able to attend the Young Rider Finalist Squad held at Werribee Park Equestrian Centre
- Must be available to conduct Interviews with the Top Three Finalists.

Each Equestrian sports discipline may have different additional requirements necessary to fulfil the role of selector.

2.2.6 Ethical Consideration

A Selector must have qualities of tact, integrity and ability to preserve confidentiality of the information that is conveyed to them both by individual riders and other EA officials or team management.

2.2.7 Conflict of Interest

A conflict of interest arises when a person is serving or attempting to serve two or more interests which are not compatible.

It is essential that the position of a Selector be above any criticism of perceived or actual conflict on interest or bias.

Please refer to the Equestrian Australia Conflict of Interest Policy endorsed by the EA National Board 14 May 2013.

PART C – NOMINATIONS

3.1 Top 10 Finalist Nominations
